GYMPIE via MARY VALLEY

This is a full day run of long distance, particularly suiting northside and Sunshine Coast members. Features stop at Peggy Sue's Diner at Belli Park west of Eumundi, then cruising up the Mary Valley to Hell Town Hotrods at Kybong, south of Gympie.

Start Point :

BP, Bruce Highway, Burpengary

Route :

Bruce Highway north to Eumundi turnoff (Exit 224), exit, move into left lane and head straight through roundabout to follow 'West Eumundi Road' (Kenilworth/Gympie sign) beside highway north. At the highway overpass (2.5km), continue straight towards Kenilworth. Peggy Sue's is on Browns Road on the right, around 12km from Exit 224. It is just after the Belli Creek bridge and has a short turning lane. There's not a lot of parking out front, but there is a cleared area back towards the main road with plenty of room. After morning tea, exit Browns Road to the right and head to Kenilworth. Just before you reach here, turn right to head to Gympie.

Optional trip into Kenilworth - Turn left at the T Junction just north of Kenilworth and head into town. Cruise down Elizabeth Street and turn right after the park at Charles Street, then right again into Anne Street and right again into Philip Street to head back to the main street. Turn left and head past the T Junction again towards Gympie.

Follow Brooloo to Kenilworth Road north. First section includes a range climb and short descent after 7km. This becomes Mary Valley Road on the flat, bypassing Imbil and Kandanga. After 34km, turn right for Traveston crossing (Brisbane sign). Turn left immediately to Dobson Road, then right into Traveston Crossing Road. This exits at the old Bruce Highway at 37km. Turn left and head north to Hell Town Hotrods, another 8 km. Turn right into Woondum Road to access (no turning lane), just after you see the Cement Plant on the same side.

Cautions :

Navigation through Eumundi roundabout, turnoff for Peggy Sue's, Brooloo range is not too difficult, Traveston crossing dogleg, turnoff for Hell Town Hotrods has no turning lane.
